Multitickets

Discover the culture, art and fun of Barcelona at your own pace

Museums, places of interest, galleries, cultural venues... Barcelona is an inexhaustible source of culture, art, leisure and gastronomy that you simply can't afford to miss. But... where to start? We've got the perfect solution that will suit all tastes. The city's multitickets are the convenient way to discover Barcelona's cultural treasures and make the most of a whole host of special deals. For instance, the Barcelona Card features free travel on public transport as well as more than 280 € off admission and free offers at museums, cultural venues, landmark buildings, entertainments, etc. If you love the art, the Articket Barcelona provides admission to seven of the city's museums and art centres that you can enjoy their permanent and temporary collections. You can also enjoy the city's private foundations with their collections of contemporary art and ground-breaking and dynamic exhibits with the new Artcoticket Barcelona, the perfect multiticket for lovers of the most representative painting, sculpture, photography and video art on the current national and international art scene. And if you're a fan of the history of civilisations, the Arqueoticket Barcelona provides admission to the five city museums with archaeological collections. You'll find out about the everyday habits of our forebears and gain an insight into the essence of a variety of cultures and societies. All these multitickets feature important discounts on admission prices. This makes them the easiest and most economical option to discover Barcelona's art and culture in depth.

Barcelona Opportunity Week (BCNOW!)

27th January-5th February 2012

Barcelona Opportunity Week, known as BCNOW!, is an initiative that provides a unique opportunity to do some shopping, enjoy good food and culture and stay in amazing hotels at affordable prices. Created to tie in with the winter sales and to boost and maintain sales during this period, many of the city's hotels, restaurants, cultural attractions, markets and florists will be offering discounts on their usual prices throughout the week. Part of the revenue obtained by the participating outlets during BCNOW! will be donated to charity.

The lyrical world of Strauss

13th, 14th and 15th January 2012 at L'Auditori de Barcelona

A great master of the German repertoire, the conductor Hartmut Haenchen presents a concert series that will showcase his personal and expert interpretations of the works of Mozart and Richard Strauss: two composers born a century apart but connected by the same tradition. This programme reveals their similarities and differences, with Symphony no. 39 by the Salzburg-born composer, a work steeped in a passion enveloped by classical forms and style, yet full of the magic of the more mature and inspired Mozart.

Pierre-Auguste Renoir, View of the Docks, Paris, 1891 (detail). Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute (USA)

The impressionists at CaixaForum

Until 12th February 2012 CaixaForum

The exhibition brings together an outstanding selection of French paintings from the 19th and early 20th centuries, from the collection of the Sterling & Francine Clark Art Institute. Robert Sterling Clark amassed most of his private collection in Paris in the first decade of the 20th century, for the sheer enjoyment of being surrounded by the great works of art of the period. Most of the works he acquired came from the early impressionist period, and he displayed them alongside old masters and their immediate predecessors, to form a chronological sequence. The exhibition also features works by the realist painters of the Barbizon School (Corot, Millet, Rousseau) and great impressionist masters, such as Sisley, Pissarro, Manet, Monet, Degas and Renoir, who was the first impressionist painter in the Clark Collection. Sterling Clark converted his personal passions into public heritage when he set up his own museum in Williamstown (Massachusetts, USA) in 1955. The exhibition relives the splendour of the 19th century, when Paris was the art capital of the world, and gives us an insight into some of its leading artists.

Can Framis

Can Framis, a former textile mill built in the early 19th century and located in the 22@ (Poblenou) technology district, is home to the Fundació Vila Casas collection of contemporary painting which showcases works by more than 150 artists born or based in Catalonia who are on display in more than 3,400 m² of exhibition space. The architectural complex stands in a garden, an oasis that contrasts the human scale of the 19th-century building with the monumental scale of contemporary architecture.

Les Miserables, more than a musical, a legend

Barcelona Teatre Musical

Les Miserables is being performed in Barcelona for the first time and for a limited season. The new 25th-anniversary production features drawings and paintings by Victor Hugo and recreates this moving, universal story that is just as thrilling as ever and, for this reason, has become the world's longest-running musical. The production has just premiered in London and is brought to you by Stage Entertainment (the producer of hits such as The Lion King, Chicago, Mamma Mia!, Cabaret and Beauty and the Beast) and Cameron Mackintosh (the producer of My Fair Lady, Cats and The Phantom of the Opera, to name just three). Los Miserables has one of the most beautiful scores on today's musical scene and features a superb cast of leading performers who have received all kinds of plaudits.
