

Special events 2019

La Calçotada – 9th March: A day when everyone gets together to enjoy popular culture and traditional Catalan cooking.

Festival de Titelles de Barcelona – 16th and 17th March: Held over the weekend, the Puppet Festival is perfect for all the family and packed with entertainments and all kinds of puppet shows featuring table-top puppets, glove puppets, marionettes, shadow theatre, among others.

De flor en flor – 19th to 22nd April: A fantastic festival of colours and sensations where you can enjoy countless activities associated with sustainability.

Biergarten. Festa de la cervesa – 30th April to 12th May: Live music and DJ sessions that transform the Poble Espanyol into a typical Biergarten where German beer and food will be the stars.

Rock&Grill. BBQ&Music Festival – 31st May, 1st and 2nd June: A festival celebrating the barbecue and American music where chargrilled meat will provide the perfect excuse to sit around a table with family and friends.

Summer nights - June, July and September: Plays, music, films and magic in the open air will fill the summer nights at this iconic Montjuïc landmark.

Fira de Clicks i Lego – 28th and 29th September: A weekend for fans and those with childhood memories of these fun figures. Different areas of the Poble Espanyol will be filled with spectacular and painstaking recreations on a wide variety of themes.

Halloween – 2nd and 3rd November: Zombies, vampires and other creatures of the night will come out at this hair-raisingly fun festival packed with things to do.

Christmas at Poble Espanyol – 6th to 8th and 20th to 29th December: Christmas market, living Nativity, Father Christmas's house, the traditional present-yielding log, the "Tió"... Everything's in place for you to enjoy the most traditional Christmas.

New Year's Eve party – 31st December: A Barcelona classic that fills New Year's Eve with the latest hits.